This book was written by David A. Orebaugh, son of Eli(6) and Sarah Maxfield Orebaugh, for his daughter, Virginia Grace Orebaugh. In the introduction, the author writes "You are one of the really old families in America. Your ancestors, though not renowned, helped in several wars to win and maintain independence." -----5

The name Orebaugh is an anglicized form of an old German name, originally Overbach. All family names ending in "baugh" are of Pennsylvania German origin.

In 1648, the Thirty Years War came to an end in Germany and many Germans, mostly Lutherans, regarding it as a long, bloody and senseless war, decided to seek religious and other freedoms in the new world. Many sailed for the--10 United States and when the English ship "The Johnson", commanded by Captain David Crocket, sailed from Rotterdam, Holland in 1732 we find that among other German immigrants sailing on that ship one Andreas Overbach and family.

From the time "The Johnson" landed at Philadelphia until the Revolutionary War, there is no authentic record and little family tradition concerning---15 Andres and his family. The author knows only that Andreas' grandson, Andrew, served throughout the Revolutionary War as a soldier in the Continental Army. He received, after the war, several thousand dollars in Continental money and a land grant which entitled him to locate 300 acres of land in the Virginia Military District of the then Territory of Ohio. The fact that----20 Andrew received a warrant for 300 acres indicates that he had attained the rank of captain since the Virginia law did not give as much as 300 acres to a soldier of lesser rank. (Henings Statutes Chapter 2 Page 179)

It is understood that Andrew bought a farm in Rockingham County, Virginia, near Timberville and in 1925, an Orebaugh still lived on that farm. -----25

David A. Orebaugh says that there are conflicting reports on whether Andrew and Jacob, sons of the Revolutionary Andrew, both emigrated to Highland County, Ohio in 1828. One source says "About 1828, Andrew and his two sons, Andrew and Jacob, emigrated to Highland County, Ohio." But another source says "Jacob, with his family, emigrated to Highland County, but his brother,--30 Andrew remained in Virginia where he left many descendants." The Revolutionary Andrew had three sons, Andrew, Jacob and Abraham all of whom served in the War of 1812. Abraham died unmarried.

A list of Palatines arrived in the port of Philadelphia on board the Johnson Galley of London, David Crocket, Commander September 18, 1732. Among the--35 passengers-- Andres Overbach, Elizabeth, his wife, and children Johannes, Philips and Matelina. The signature of Andreas Overbeck appears on List 21B of the Pink Johnson September 9, 1732 and also on page 63 in the second volume of the above mentioned book.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The first part of the book is devoted to the early history of the United States, from the discovery of the continent by Christopher Columbus in 1492 to the establishment of the first permanent English colonies in the early 17th century.

The second part of the book covers the period from the end of the 17th century to the beginning of the 18th century, when the colonies were still largely dependent on Great Britain.

The third part of the book deals with the American Revolution, from the outbreak of hostilities in 1775 to the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776 and the final victory at Yorktown in 1781.

The fourth part of the book covers the period from the end of the Revolution to the beginning of the 19th century, when the United States emerged as a major power in the world.

The fifth part of the book deals with the period from the beginning of the 19th century to the end of the Civil War in 1865.

The sixth part of the book covers the period from the end of the Civil War to the beginning of the 20th century, when the United States became a world superpower.

The seventh part of the book deals with the period from the beginning of the 20th century to the end of the Second World War in 1945.

The eighth part of the book covers the period from the end of the Second World War to the present day, when the United States has remained a major world power.

Phillip Overbach--date and place of birth unknown. Wife unknown. It is not known definitely whether Phillip had children but it is believed that Rudolph Orebaugh, whose name appears in the U.S. Census publication "Heads of Families in Virginia at the Close of the Revolutionary War" was his son. I also have reason to believe that the Orebaughs who came--5 from Rockingham County, Virginia and settled in Preble County, Ohio and later in Shelbyville, Indiana are descendants of Rudolph. However, owing to the uncertainty of the connection and the difficulty of tracing it, I have decided to not include this branch of the family.

Adam Orebaugh was a member of the early Lutheran Church in Dodson, ---20
Highland County, Ohio.

A marriage certificate, in the possession of Mathilde Johnson states that Andrew J. Orebaugh of Dodsonville, Ohio and Miss Mary A. Stroup of Dodsonville, Ohio were joined in Holy Matrimony at the Dodsonville M.E. Church on November 17, 1850 by Thomas Wallace, Minister of the Gospel. ----25

Mary Ann Stroup was the daughter of William W. and Elizabeth Thompson Stroup and the granddaughter of Michael (known as the Hatter) and Mary Ann (Polly) Walker Stroup whose wedding was the first celebrated in Highland County, Ohio and is written up in the History of Ross and Highland Counties.

The following information was sent to Mathilde Johnson by Miss Flavia --30 Converse, a genealogist of Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Mr. Strickler in his book listing marriages and marriage bonds in Virginia from 1778-1816 gives "The groom is kuardian of the bride" when listing And. Carbough's 1808 bond for marriage with Hannah Fry, daughter of Henry, who had died. In these guardianship bonds the word guardian is not used at all, 35 but from the wording of the bonds and the labeling on the outside of the book, you are made aware of the fact that this is meant. The date of Andrew's bond was November 15, 1808 and the amount of the bond was one hundred dollars. This bond made Andrew responsible for " funds to be turned over to Hannah Fry, orphan of Henry Fry".

Miss F. Flavia Converse explains a custom of those days by saying " In those

Miss Converse supplied the following from books of deeds in Rockingham County (formerly Augusta County, Virginia)---

- 1822--Christian Orebaugh to George Miller (Burned records)
- 1845--Dorathy Orebaugh to Elizabeth McGahey, B.R.D.B. 18, 241, part.-----5
 Indenture dated June 30, 1845. Grantors were: John Arehart, Jacob Arehart, George Airhart, Abraham Airhart, Mathias Kinich and Dorotha his wife, John Rife and Catherine his wife, Dorothy Oerbaugh, Lydia Oarbaugh of the County of Rockingham State of Virginia" and the grantee was Elizabeth McGahey of the County of Rockingham and State-10 aforesaid". It is stated "the said parties above named of the first part being brothers and sisters, children of said Jacob Stouttemire, deceased". (Strange that, being brothers and sisters and children of Jacob Stouttemire they should all have such different names?)
- 1857- Dorathy Orebaugh to John E. Brown, B.R.D.B. 30, Page 250; whole.----15
 By this indenture dated April 24, 1857, Dorathy Orebaugh sold to John E. Brown, in trust to secure indebtedness of hers, two Rockingham County lots each five acres more or less". (Miss Converse says that in the 1845 instrument Dorathy signed by mark with her given name spelled Dorerthy. Her surname and Lydia's were both spelled Oerbaugh-20 and Lydia signed for herself".
- 1857-- Eve Orebaugh, 7c. to J.S. Bowman, B.R.D.B. 30, 397; none. Evidently this deed was lost for the notation on the deed book reads "A Deed for Land from Eve Orebaugh to Joseph S. Bowman was among some deeds returned for record at the August term, 1857 of the County Court, the record-25 thereof being wholly lost and neither the original deed nor certified copy being found for record."
- 1845--Oarbough, G.A., &c. to Elizabeth McGahey, B.R.D.B. 18, Pages 274, 276
 This was an indenture dated July, 12, 1845. Grantors were "Anna Stoudamere Phebe Skyles Reuben Stoudamire John Stoudamire George A.-- 30 Orebaugh and Elizabeth his wife Jacob Stoudamire Aaron Stoudamire of the County of Augusta and state of Virginia." Again we find "Brothers and sisters, children of said Jacob Stoutamire, deceased." Jacob's widow was Barbara.
- 1846- B.R.D.B. 19, Pages 23-25. Miss Converse says "You can't see all of--35 the date in the beginning, but according to a certificate of acknowledgment dated October 25, 1845, George A. Orebaugh, who signed for himself, and Elizabeth Orebaugh, who signed by mark, were evidently the grantors. Elizabeth is referred to in one place as "formerly Elizabeth Stoudamire." Jacob Long was the grantee. Land passing by-40 this instrument was in the neighborhood of Keezletown."
- 1851- Isaac Orbaugh to Samuel Gordon, B.R.D.B. 23, 413; whole.
 "Now we are going over to Madison County, Indiana, for it is stated that Isaac Orbaugh was of that county and state. He was the grantor; the grantee, Samuel Gordon or Gordan as it is written part of the--45 time, was of Rockingham County. Sold by Isaac "to the said Samuel Gordon and his heirs and assigns forever all his undivided share and interest in and to the lands of Abraham Orebaugh, deceased-- lying and being on the east side of the little North Mountain about four miles below Brock Gap in the County of Rockingham and State of-----50 Virginia." Isaac signed by mark.

- 1829- In B.R.D.B.9, Pages 130-131, is recorded what was left of an indenture dated September 15, 1829. This was between Jacob Carbaugh and Rachel his wife of the County of Rockingham state of Virginia of the one part and George Miller of the same State and County aforesaid of the other part. Land sold: "One certain tract or parcel of Land Contain- -5
ing Seventy Two Acres more or less lying and being in the County of Rockingham and State aforesaid and on a small branch called Holsan's Creek and the Same part whereon the Said Carbaugh now lives and being a part of the Tract of Land which by Survey now appears to measure One Hundred and Six Acres which whole tract was by their Father Andrew -10 Orebaugh by his last will and Testament willed and Bequeathed unto his two sons Viz. Jacob and Andrew and the said Jacob Carbaughs part is now laid off according to equity and to contain (With other considerations) Seventy Two Acres more or less for and in consideration of the sum of five hundred and Four Dollars Current money of the united States to -15 him the said Miller in hand paid by the said Jacob Carbaugh and Rachel his wife the receipt whereof is hereby Acknowledged do sell and Bargain and by presents do---- Bargain and sell unto the said George Miller and his heirs forever all their Moiety claim----any person whatsoever to the said land and bounded as follows Viz." &c. -20
Miss Converse says there are many blanks in this description of the land and nothing definite as to location.
- 1853- B.R.D.B.25, Page 87 " A deed dated April 2,1853. The Grantors were Martin Obaugh (sometimes recorded as Marlin) and Susannah Obaugh his wife of the county of Augusta in the State of Virginia; the grantee was -25 Robert Grattan of the County of Rockingham and state aforesaid. The tract contained ten acres.
- 1842-B.R.D.B. 15, Page 489; part. Peter Orebaugh grantor; John Hottinger, grantees.
- 1850- The recodation date is 50-2 7 which would indicate February 2, 1850 but, strangely the only name following the date is Carbaugh. I quote Miss -30 Converse " Perhaps a caller said it was cold in the Clerk's Office that February day, and the clerk had to go to stir up the coals in the stove. At any rate not even the deed book and page are indicated. Probably the deed, if not destroyed, could be found without too long a search for the next listing was that of an instrument in B.R.D.B. 22, page 398, and -35 its recordation date was some time in 1850."
- 1850- Rebecca Carbaugh to Samuel Gordon B.R.D.B. 22 Page 398; whole.
- ????- Miss Converse says the date is uncertain-- Solomon Carbaugh to Benjamin Dellinger, B.R.D.B. 201 Page 327; whole.
- 1850- Rebecca Carbaugh to Samuel Gordon B.R.D.B. 22 Page 398-- this indenture-40
dated September 11, 1849- Grantors: Jonathan Hulva and his wife Lydia Samuel Price and Regina his wife Henry Miller and Leana his wife heirs of Abraham Carbaugh, deceased, and Rebecca Carbaugh widow of said Abraham, deceased of the County of Rockingham and State of Virginia"- grantee- Samuel Gordon of the County and State aforesaid." -45 Consideration, $780.00 paid. By this instrument, the grantors conveyed "all their undivided interests right and title in the lands of Abraham Carbaugh, Dec. being the same upon which the said Carbaugh resided at the time of his decease lying and being in the North Mountain Road about five miles below Brook Gap. The interest of the undivided shares of the- 50 aforesaid heirs hereby intended to be conveyed also includes their future interest in the dower to which they would be entitled after the death of the aforesaid widow Rebecca Carbaugh." The widow united in the deed convey" to the said Gordon all her dower rights and interest in the lands of her late husband Abraham Orebaugh dead." Jonathan signed for himself- Regina's name doesn't appear at the end. The others signed by mark. Regina must have signed in some way, for a certificate of Samuel Cootes and William G. Thompson, Justices of the Peace, mentions Regina along with the other-5 wives. Samuel Cootes at one time lived at Cootes Store, at which is called the mouth of Brock's Gap. I do not know whether he ever lived elsewhere. But you will notice that Abraham Orebaugh's land upon which it was said he resided at the time of his death was about five miles below Brock's Gap. So probably Samuel Cootes was living at Cootes Store in 1849. These same-10 two justices took the acknowledgment of the three men and of the widow, using a separate certificate. Both of these certificates were dated September 14, 1849. Recordation date: February 7, 1850.

1819-B.R.D.B.4,353- An indenture dated October 26, 1819 between " Adam Orebaugh alias Orebaugh of the County of Rockingham in the Commonwealth of Virginia -15 of the one part, and William Orebaugh(son of the said Adam) of the County and Commonwealth aforesaid of the other part." The land sold was a tract of six acres in Rockingham County "at the forest", which had been by two instruments of 1771, it seems, recorded in Augusta County, "part-20 of a tract of two hundred acres which was granted to the Said Adam Orebaugh (alias Orbach) by patent bearing date the Second day of August in the year 1787 and is bounded as followeth" etc. William had a brother, Christian, it seems. Adam signed by mark, with his surname written as Orebaugh-- or Orebough. Miss Converse writes " 'The forest' must have been what we-25 call Forestville now--not far from Timberville."

B.R.D.B.4 Pages 354-356--An instrument in which Adam Orebaugh was grantor and his son, Christian, was grantee. By this tract of 48½ acres in Rockingham County "at the forest" was sold to Christian and it is stated that it was conveyed to the "said Adam Orebaugh by Andrew Orebaugh and--30 Mart ant his wife Devisee of William Stolp Decd. by deeds of Lease and release dated the 9th and 10th days of August in the year 1782 and duly recorded in the County Court of Rockingham" etc.

1822-B.R.D.B. 5, 418- This indenture was marked " Destroyed" and was between Andrew Orebaugh, Grantor and John Wise, Grantee" -35

1830- B.R.D.B.9,530; part.; Adam Orebaugh to John Evers. This Adam and wife Elizabeth united in the deed. The land was in Rockingham County "on the Waters of William Rxx--" -- probably William's Run. "Trourbaughs Corner is mentioned in this description."

1834-B.R.D.B. 11, Page 377;whole. Adam Orebaugh and Elziabeth his wife were-40 grantors; date March 27, 1834. Frederick Cupp was grantee. The two tracts in this deed, for which the sum of $1,400.00 was paid, were near the North Mountain, on the South west side of Briery Branch etc.-- about 154 acres.

1851-B.R.D.B.28,283-284;part. The land in this was "near the Mountain Road -45 it being part of a larger tract owned by the said Andrew Orebaugh all Included within the metes and bounds to wit." "Samuel Orebaugh's line is mentioned. As Naason Bare was the Justice of the Peace who took the acknowledgment, my surmise is that this was near Timberville."

1855-B.R.D.B., Pages 297-299; part. B.R.D.B.28. Andrew Orebaugh was grantor and Noah Orebaugh the grantee.

1859-B.R.D.B.32, Pages 488-489; only partly destroyed is an instrument in which "Adam Orebaugh and Sarah his wife were among various grantors. -5 This was dated January 18, 1859. Miss Converse says " I would not be surprised to learn that this Sarah Orebaugh was an Armentrout as all the other grantors besides Adam and Sarah are either Armentrouts or Michaels. Eli Keeran was the grantee. The land granted by this instrument was in Rockingham County "between Cub Run and the Peaked Mountain."-10
It seems that "the heirs of Henry Arme---- had conveyed this tract to Henry Armentrout by a deed recorded in 1834. Henry Armentrout is not among those named as grantors. There are twelve grantors but only eleven signatures, five of which were by mark-- three of the Michaels and Adam and Sarah. Adam and Sarah were in Augusta County at this time. -15

1859 B.R.D.B.33, Pages 352-355 record a deed in which Adam and Sarah are again among various Armentrouts and Michaels as grantors. The date is January 18, 1859. This is again land "between cub run and----- Mountain in Rockingham." The Armentrouts were of Rockingham County, but Adam and Sarah and the Michaels were of Augusta County, and an Augusta County Notary -20 Public, Andrew Clinediest, by his two separate certificates, showed that he had taken Sarah's acknowledgment and that of "----Orebaugh", presumably Adam.

"4-Orebough-Jacob"

Miss Converse says " The '4' means that Jacob was taxed with four horses that year. If I understand correctly, the finding of a man's name -30 in these tithable lists doesn't mean necessarily that he had military service. The whole country was divided into sections then, with a captain for each, and all of the men of the County (and their sons 16 or more) had to be counted in one or another of these companies,-- in the Company, of course, in their section of the County. I suppose the listing was -35 partly for taxation purposes, bit I think the various Captain's Companies were, in a way, like State Militia,-- subject to call to military service, if necessary.

Linville is not too far from Timberville."

Pages 40,41:

Among those listed as comprising Company 9 are " 1-- Oreboh, Adam -40 and William"-- Adam was taxed with only one horse and, as William is listed with him, William presumably was Adam's son. Here is the listing:

"No.9- East Dist.

(Capt. Ezekial Harrison's Company Present west portion of Plains District) Timberville-Raders Church-The Plains-The Forest-Fort Run-North Branch of the Shenandoah-Mechanicsville, Honeyville-Long Meadows-Long Glade, -45
The Mash, a cave- lead mines".

The fourth line above the listing just quoted is:

" 5-Orebough, Andrew" so in 1792, Andrew was twaxed with five horses and lived in the vicinity of Timberville."

In Company No.4, (Captain George Huston's Company that year) is:

"Ore William" (Could this have been meant for Orebaugh?)

In Company No.10, "Oreboh Adam" and "Oreboh Andrew" -5

Miss Converse writes " To summarize these two listings, the 1788 and 1792 lists, it would seem that in 1788 Adam Oreboh and Andrew Oreboh were the only heads of families of this name, unless William was one and the Commissioner or else the Clerk was interrupted before he finished writing the name so that it appeared as "Ore" instead of "Orebaugh". -10 And it would seem that by 1792 a Jacob Orebough was in the Linville Creek neighborhood, and Adam Oreboh with William in his household was in the Timberville vicinity. As this Andrew had five horses, and Jacob four, and Adam only one, I should think Andrew and Jacob had been established earlier (even though I did not find Jacob in the 1788 listings) and that-15 Adam, with only one horse(and with William in the household) had not been so long established, unless it just happened that he had not acquired so much of this world's goods and had not been able to buy more than one horse at that time."

Rockingham County was formed from Augusta County, Virginia, Rockingham -20 records began in the spring of 1778, when the first court was held, Rockingham having been formed in the autumn of 1777 by an Act of Legislature. Augusta County was formed (from Orange) more than thirty years earlier, but, sad to say, the available marriage records there seem to begin in 1785,-- seven years later than those in Rockingham -25 County.

Orebaugh

April 12, 1879 and died August 4, 1955. daughter of George and Cindy Barnett's Bish. The children of Aaron and Mary E. Bish Stroup are Evellette (1896-1913)

Jesse Stroup: born February 12, died 1924-- married Cleveland Murtland

Edmund Stroup born April 6, 1904; living; married Margaret Drisholl "

-5

According to my former records, Aaron was the son of Harvey and Lydia(6) Orebaugh Stroup, and Harvey was the son of William and Anna Spikard Stroup. (Birth dates-- William June 21, 1800; Harvey- Nov.19, 1833; -10 Aaron-Sept.6, 1872. My records show Herda Blin instead of Mary E. Bish as Aaron's wife and his daughter, Mary, marrying Cleveland Kortlin rather than Cleveland Murtland. Obviously this error can be cleared without too much effort.)

(B) Frances E.(6) Orebaugh: Daughter of Adam(5) and Rebecca Screechfield Orebaugh; born November 7, 1844; married Joseph Cochran. -15

(C) John L.(6A) Orebaugh: Son of Adam(5) and Rebecca Screechfield Orebaugh; born September 22, 1847; died 1916; was a lawyer; married Lydia M. Wilkin; two children: (See this page line 27 for L.M.Wilkin)

(1) George(7A) Orebaugh: Son of John L.(6A) and Lydia M. Wilkin Orebaugh; born July 25, 1871; a doctor. -20

(2) Urban(7) Orebaugh: Son of John L.(6A) and Lydia M. Wilkin Orebaugh; born October 2, 1874; a printer and monotype operator; one child:

(a) Charles W.(8) Orebaugh: Son of Urban(7) Orebaugh; lived at the Parker Hotel, Hillsboro, Ohio in 1954. -25

(Note: In "Memorial Sketches" by Eliza Jane Pulse Scott--" All of George and Eliza Bonwell'Pulse's daughters were married before the Civil War so George and Eliza took Margaret Wilkin to rear. She married J.L.Orebaugh and had two sons."-- George Pulse was born and reared in Virginia but moved to Ohio where he and his second wife Eliza Bonwell Pulse, lived at Hillsboro and later at Lynchburg.) -30

(D) Andrew J.(6) Orebaugh: Son of Adam(5) and Rebecca Screechfield Orebaugh; born October 16, 1855; married Mary Gegner; Andrew J.(6) was a musician, orchestra and band leader; one child: - 35

(1) Maude B.(7) Orebaugh: Daughter of Andrew J.(6) and Mary Gegner Orebaugh; was a concert violinist.

(III) Jacob(5) Orebaugh: Son of Jacob(4) and Rachel Fry Orebaugh; born on December 29, 1824-- probably in Rockingham County, Virginia near Timberville. Some sources say that Jacob(5) was five years old when he moved, with his family, to Highland County, Ohio in 1828--which leads us to believe his birth year was 1822 or 1823 since his brother, Peter was born March 25, 1825. Jacob(5) married Emma Fredmore, a native of New Jersey, who was born February 17, 1822 and died April 10,1903. They were married in 1846. Jacob(5) was a farmer; moved to Clermont County, Ohio and then to Barry, Pike County, Illinois in 1857; was a school director in Barry, Illinois; six children: James H.; Michael; Sarah J.; Rachel A.; Mary E.; and Joseph Orebaugh. - 45

Information on Jacob(5) can be found in "History of Pike County, Illinois"
(A) James H.(6) Orebaugh: Son of Jacob(5) and Emma Fredmore Orebaugh; born June 8, 1852 in Clermont County, Ohio; moved to Barry, Pike County, Illinois in 1857; married Sarah E. Matthews, daughter of Joseph Matthews, deceased, of Adams County, Illinois on January 1, 1878; six children: - 50

c. Andrew(4) Orebaugh: Son of Andrew(3) and unknown wife; birthplace and date unknown; married Hannah Fry, daughter of Henry Fry, deceased, in 1808 in Rockingham County, Virginia. In Strickler's Book of Virginia Marriages from 1778 to 1816, there is a note that Andrew Orebaugh gave bond at the time of his marriage to Hannah Fry and this bond held Andrew responsible for funds to be turned over to Hannah from her father's estate. This notation mentions that Rachel Fry, who married Andrew's brother, Jacob, in 1811, and Lydia Fry were also orphans of Henry. In those years a fatherless child was called an orphan whether the mother was living or not. Andrew(4) died September 12, 1864 and Hannah Fry Orebaugh died September 15, 1852. Andrew(4) fought in the War of 1812. One source says that Andrew moved to Highland County, Ohio but others says that Andrew stayed in Virginia when his brother Jacob moved his family to Highland County about 1828-- and that Andrew has many descendants in Virginia. It is said-- that the Orebaughs in Virginia were sharply divided in their opinions at the outbreak of the Civil War and that they fought in about equal numbers for the Union and the Confederacy. Andrew(4) was a farmer. Andrew(4) and Hannah Fry Orebaugh had five children: Solomon; John; Samuel; Noah and William. --5 --10 --15 --20

(I) Solomon(5) Orebaugh: Son of Andrew(4) and Hannah Fry Orebaugh; no information except that he had four children:

(A) Andrew(6) Orebaugh

(B) David(6) Orebaugh

(C) Jacob(6) Orebaugh

(D) Mary(6) Orebaugh --25

(II) John(5A) Orebaugh: Son of Andrew(4) and Hannah Fry Orebaugh; born July 22, 1789; died November 25, 1872; (Note-- This John is listed as a son of Andrew(4) but obviously there is an error for his birth-date would indicate that he was of the fourth generation rather than the fifth and that John(5A) was likely an uncle, or even a cousin, of Andrew(4). However, I shall list his descendants at this point until further research is done. Five of his children are listed: --30

(A) Mary E.(6A) Orebaugh --35

(B) Margaret A.(6) Orebaugh: Daughter of John(5A); born May 26, 1816; died March 11, 1856

(C) George A.(6) Orebaugh: Son of John(5A); born January 25, 1818; died 1864; married in 1845 to Elizabeth Stoudamire, daughter of Jacob Stoudamire (or Stouttamire) of Rockingham--40 County, Virginia. Records in Virginia say that George A. and Elizabeth, his wife, lived in Augusta County, Virginia in 1845. Ten children:

(1) Gideon(7) A. Orebaugh: Son of George A.(6) and Elizabeth Stoudamire Orebaugh; born December 19, 1845; died August 14, 1864. --45

(2) Leannah B.(7) Orebaugh: Daughter of George A.(6) and Elizabeth Stoudamire Orebaugh; born May 14, 1847

(3) John L.(7A) Orebaugh: Son of George A.(6) and Elizabeth Stoudamire Orebaugh; born August 23, 1851 --50

(4) Cyrus M.(7) Orebaugh: Son of George A.(7) and Elizabeth Stoudamire Orebaugh; born September 27, 1849; three children:

(a) William R.(8) Orebaugh: Son of Cyrus(7); b. Mar. 23, 1877

(b) Anna P.(8) Orebaugh: Daughter of Cyrus(7) Orebaugh; born March 12, 1882; died November 8, 1896 --55

(c) Bishop A.(8) Orebaugh: Son of Cyrus(7); born January 4, 1888.

Note: I have borrowed freely from "Fab-- His Life and History" by David A. Orebaugh-- adding such facts as I have gathered through a period of several years but since I have no further material to add to Mr. Orebaugh's, I have not taken further notes from "Fab" and would suggest that the researcher consult that book for information on later generations of the Orebaugh family.

Orebaugh
(17A)

Andrew J. Orebaugh, born December 1825, married Mary Ann Stroup of Dodsonville, Highland County, Ohio in November 1850.

On November 17, 1850 the Reverend Thomas Wallace at the Dodsonville Methodist Church at Dodsonville, Ohio, performed the marriage ceremony of Andrew J. Orebaugh to Miss Mary Ann Stroup, a member of his church. Unfortunately we have been unable to learn much about Andrew J. Orebaugh except that he was born in December 1825 and died shortly after the birth of his second child,--5 America Jane Orebaugh, who was born in 1854. Since his widow married again in 1857, we assume that his death date can be placed between 1854 and 1857.

On October 16, 1855 a son was born to Adam and Rebecca Screechfield Orebaugh and he was named Andrew J. Orebaugh and on March 8, 1858 a son was born to-- 10 George A. and Elizabeth Stoudamire Orebaugh and he, also, was named Andrew J. Orebaugh. The Andrew J. who was born in 1855 was the grandson of Jacob and Rachel Fry Orebaugh and the Andrew J., born in 1858, was the great grandson of Andrew Orebaugh, who was Jacob's father. So Andrew Orebaugh(1750-1805) had two great grandsons named Andrew J. and it seems more than a coincidence--15 that these two boys, born so soon after the death of Andrew J. Orebaugh should have been given the same name. This helps to convince us that Andrew J. Orebaugh was of this branch of the Orebaugh family but so far proof has eluded us.

Since we have so much data on the family of Mary Ann Stroup who married --20 Andrew J. Orebaugh in 1850, we are including a bit of her history before giving the information on the descendants of Andrew J. and Mary Ann Stroup Orebaugh.

The Stroups, like the Orebaughs, were of German origin. Mary Ann Stroup's grandfather was Michael Stroup, known as "The Hatter", who was born in --25 May 1, 1779 (it is believed in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania) and died in Highland County, Ohio February 20, 1860. Michael migrated to Highland County, Ohio about 1798 where he married Mary Ann (Polly) Walker in March 1803 in the first marriage ceremony performed in that county. Mary Ann Walker was born January 16, 1786 at Stamping Ground, Fleming County, --30 Kentucky; migrated to and was married in Highland County; lived there and reared her family in Dodsonville; died there April 17, 1866. Both Mary Ann(Polly) and Michael are buried in the Stroup Cemetery in Highland County and their tombstones verify their birth and death dates. They had fourteen children, all but one of whom lived to maturity. William M. --35 Stroup was their oldest child and was born January 1, 1804 and married Elizabeth Thompson on June 1, 1826. Elizabeth was born in Virginia on August 28, 1802; was reared in Kentucky; migrated to Highland County, Ohio where she married William M. Stroup; died October 5, 1882 at the home of her son, Michael, in Carroll County, Missouri at whose home her hus- --40 band, William M. Stroup, died on September 16, 1883. Both William M. and Elizabeth Thompson Stroup are buried in Union Cemetery, Bosworth, Missouri. They had four children, one of whom was Mary Ann Stroup.

It is followed by a detailed account of the various projects and schemes undertaken, and a summary of the results achieved. The report concludes with a statement of the resources available and the plans for the future.

The work done during the year has been of a highly successful nature, and it is a pleasure to report that the various projects and schemes have all been completed in accordance with the programme of work laid down at the beginning of the year. The results achieved have been most satisfactory, and it is hoped that they will be of great benefit to the country.

The resources available for the work done during the year have been most generous, and it is a pleasure to report that they have all been used in the most efficient manner possible. The plans for the future are most ambitious, and it is hoped that they will be carried out in the most successful manner possible.

The report is a most interesting and informative one, and it is a pleasure to report that it has been most well received. It is hoped that it will be of great benefit to the country, and that it will be of great interest to all those who are concerned with the progress of the work done during the year.

OREBAUGH INDEX

Key to Index:

The numerals following a name indicate the page and line of reference-- for example: John 3-52 5-7,34,37 11-10 indicates that references to John will be found on page three, line fifty two, on page five on lines seven, thirty four and thirty seven and again on page ten, line eleven.

The numeral in parentheses following the first name of an individual indicates the generation to which he belongs in the Orebaugh lineage using Andreas Overbach as the first of his line in America. In case there is more than one individual in a generation bearing a name, we distinguish by using a letter after the generation number-- for instance, John(5) will be distinguished from John(5A) and John(5B) though they were all fifth generation Orebaughs.

??? indicates that the name is unknown or uncertain.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all business transactions. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and assets. Proper record-keeping is essential for determining the true financial position of the business at any given time.

2. In addition to record-keeping, it is crucial to understand the different types of business entities. Each entity type has its own set of rules and regulations regarding taxation and liability. Consulting with a professional advisor can help determine the most suitable structure for your business.

3. Another key aspect is the management of cash flow. Ensuring that there is always enough cash on hand to cover operating expenses is vital for the survival of the business. Regular monitoring and forecasting can help prevent cash shortages.

4. Finally, it is important to stay up-to-date on changes in tax laws and regulations. The tax environment is constantly evolving, and failing to adapt can result in unnecessary tax payments or penalties. Regular education and professional advice are necessary to navigate these changes effectively.

5. Furthermore, understanding the implications of different business decisions is crucial. For example, the choice between a sole proprietorship and a corporation can have significant long-term effects on the business's growth and the owner's personal liability.

6. It is also important to consider the impact of business decisions on the company's reputation. Ethical practices and transparency can build trust with customers and investors, while unethical behavior can damage the business's image and profitability.

7. In conclusion, successful business management requires a combination of careful record-keeping, a solid understanding of business law and finance, and the ability to make informed decisions that align with the company's long-term goals.

8. By following these principles, business owners can increase their chances of success and ensure the long-term sustainability of their enterprises. Regular consultation with professional advisors can provide the additional expertise needed to handle complex business and financial matters.

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses. It includes names like 'John Doe' and 'Jane Smith' along with their respective street addresses and city/zip codes.

2. The second part of the document contains a list of dates and times. It appears to be a schedule or a log of events, with entries such as '10/15/2023 10:00 AM' and '10/16/2023 2:00 PM'.

3. The third part of the document is a list of items or categories. It includes terms like 'Electronics', 'Clothing', and 'Books', which might represent different sections of a store or a list of products.

4. The final part of the document contains a list of numbers and possibly codes. These could be reference numbers, IDs, or some form of numerical data.

5. The fifth part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first part. It includes names like 'Robert Johnson' and 'Mary White' with their contact information.

6. The sixth part of the document contains a list of dates and times, continuing the schedule or log from the second part. It includes entries like '10/17/2023 9:00 AM'.

7. The seventh part of the document is a list of items or categories, similar to the third part. It includes terms like 'Furniture', 'Garden', and 'Tools'.

8. The final part of the document contains a list of numbers and possibly codes, similar to the fourth part. It includes numerical values and alphanumeric strings.
